1. On 2 May 1951, four JS tanks, eight SP guns and twelve trucks, including
25X1C [REDACTED] were loaded at 25X1C
Burg (N 53/Y 61) freight yard. A railroadman stated that the shipment was dispatched to Wolmirstedt. He added that shipments of tanks and SP Guns had also been dispatched on 25 or 26 April.

2. The billeting area of the Panzer Kaserne on August-Debel-Strasse was quiet on 2 May. [REDACTED] were 25X1C observed there. Also there was no activity at the Artillerie Kaserne on Zerbster Chaussee. The artillery unit from the installation had allegedly been at Altenrabow (N 53/Z 00) for more than two weeks. Trucks which left the billeting area toward Altenrabow were [REDACTED] 25X1C

25X1C insert the billeting area toward Altengraben were 25X1C

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] the troops loaded on 25X1C
2 May belonged primarily belonged to the 136th Cds Hvy Tank SP Regt of the Third Shock Army. [REDACTED] the loading of units of this regiment as early as 16 and 19 April 1951 and believed their destination was Letzlinger Heide. The bulk of the regiment therefore is carried at Letzlinger Heide since the beginning of May 1951. The artillery units of the Third Shock Army which are carried in the Artillerie Kaserne probably moved to Altengrabow for firing exercises in the second half of April 1951.
